REPORT OF PARTIES' PLANNING MEETING
CASE NUMBER 1:12-cv-01658

Natalie E. Tennant, et al.

Guideline for parties and attorneys:

The parties are advised to use the Worksheet for Report of Parties Planning Meeting (Form USDC/ATTY-004 located on the Court's website at www.wvsd.uscourts.gov) and the suggested guidelines contained in the form's comments.

1. Pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(f), a meeting was held on 11/02/2012. Those participating were:

Allen R. Prunty for plaintiff(s)
Doren Burrell for defendant(s) Natalie Tennant for defendant(s)
for defendant(s)

2. Pre-Discovery Disclosures. The parties will exchange by 12/07/2012 the information required by Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(1).

3. Plaintiff(s) should be allowed until 12/28/2012 to join additional parties and until 12/28/2012 to amend the pleadings. Defendant(s) should be allowed until 12/28/2012 to join additional parties and until 12/28/2012 to amend the pleadings.

4. Discovery Plan. The parties jointly propose to the court the following discovery plan: [Use separate paragraphs or subparagraphs as necessary if parties disagree.]

Discovery will be needed on the following subjects:

See attached Page 2a.

Disclosure of electronically stored information should be handled as follows:

N/A

The parties have agreed to an order regarding claims of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material asserted after production, as follows:

See attached Page 2a.

This action is not suitable for designation as a complex case requiring special case management procedures and additional pretrial conferences. If the parties and attorneys believe that the case is complex, the basis for that belief is:

The last date to serve discovery requests is 12/07/2012. The last date on which to take a discovery deposition is 45 days after the last date to serve discovery requests. The last date on which to take a discovery deposition is known as the "discovery completion date." [Discovery on all issues to be completed by 01/21/2013.]

The parties do adopt the discovery limits set forth in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. If the parties and attorneys believe that more discovery is needed, the basis for that belief is:

4. Discovery Plan. The parties jointly propose to the court the following discovery plan:

Discovery will be needed on the following subjects:

1. Whether the Defendants intend to offer evidence to establish that the State has a legitimate and compelling interest to limit the dollar amount of political contributions to independent expenditure political action committees?
2. If the answer to issue 1 is yes, what evidence the Defendants will offer and the basis of their expert opinions, if expert evidence will be offered?

The parties have agreed to an order regarding claims of privilege or of protection as trial preparation material asserted after production, as follows:

If a party wishes to assert a claim of privilege or protection as trial preparation material with respect to information already produced to another party, the party claiming privilege will promptly serve written notice of the claim of privilege or protection upon the other party along with the identification by Bates number of all documents at issue. The parties will be governed by Rule 502(b) of the West Virginia Rules of Evidence and Federal Rule 26(b)(5)(B) in the event of an inadvertent disclosure. If the parties are unable to amicably resolve the issue within 10 days, the party wishing to assert a claim of privilege or protection shall file a motion for protective order with the Court seeking a ruling on the claim of privilege and/or protection and other desired relief.
